

Professor Choi Don-Min

About Choi Don Min

Don Min is one of the rare few who has successfully combined academic interest with activism in adult education. He is the Vice-President of the Korean Federation of Lifelong Education and Assistant Professor at Sangji University, Wonju.

Don Min obtained his Bachelor, Master and Doctorate degrees in Adult Education from Hanyang University in Education

He then joined the prestigious Korean Educational Development Institute in 1988 where he gained first hand experience in conducting research projects and sharpened his skill in policy analysis. There Don Min headed the National Center of Adult Education, Academic Credit Bank.

Presently, Don Min sits on the Military Education and Training Assessment Committee and the Advisory Committee for Vice-Prime Minister of Education & Human Resources Development. He is a Specialist on the Presidential Commission for Education Reform.

Through his involvement with policy reforms and implementation, Professor Choi was able to acquire in-depth knowledge in Adult Education Policy, recognition of prior experiential learning, the assessment of learning cities.

At the international level, Don Min is the Vice-President (Korea) of the East Asia Forum for Adult Education (EFAE). He has been sharing his insights enthusiastically with the fraternity. He is currently one of the Principal Researchers involved in a comparative study project on the learning needs of knowledge workers in Korea, Singapore and Taiwan.